New York Times Best Selling Author

Can the Abrahamic religions—Judaism, Christianity, and Islam—coexist peacefully with one another?

The fate of the world may depend on that question, and Robert Wright says the answer is yes. Drawing on the histories and scriptures of these religions, he reveals the key to bringing out the best in them and shows that all three are capable of evolving to meet the great challenge of our time: knitting the world's peoples into a cohesive global society. He shows how and why the Abrahamic God has grown morally over time and offers hope that more growth lies ahead.
